- You are not insured if you carry out technical modifications to the bike contrary to the manufacturer's recommendations.
- The insurance is available to persons domiciled in Portugal.

Where am I covered?

✓ You are covered in the European Union, in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and North Ireland, the Principalities of Andorra and Monaco, the Vatican City, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, San Marino and Switzerland.

What are my obligations?

- You must use an agreed lock, either ABUS (security 10 or more), ART (category 2 or more), FUB (category 2 wheels or more), or Sold Secure, Silver (or Gold).
- You must provide us with the exact information and circumstances at the time of the conclusion of the insurance contract.
- You must inform us of any changes that occur during the term of the insurance contract that affect the items and statements mentioned in the policy.
- You must notify us of any claim to the insurance intermediary as soon as possible and no later than 8 days from the time it becomes known to the insurance intermediary. In the event of a claim, you must take all necessary measures to limit the extent of the damage.
- You must report the theft of the bike to the police or judicial authorities within 24 hours of becoming aware of the theft or attempted theft and damage. A copy of the report will be requested when you make a claim.
- If it is possible to repair your bike, you must go to an approved repair shop and provide us with an estimate of the damage before the repair is carried out.
- You must pay the premium(s) as and when they are due.

When and how do I pay?

You pay the premium annually. You will receive an invitation to pay from your insurer at renewal.

When does the cover start and end?

The start date and duration of the insurance are indicated in the policy. Coverage begins at the time specified in the policy and ends on the principal maturity date at 12:00 a.m. The contract is concluded for a period of one year and is tacitly renewed. We insure the bike for a maximum of five years after the first sale. If you have purchased the second-hand bike, we insure it for up to five years after the first owner's purchase. At the expiry date of the fifth insurance year, the insurance terminates automatically.

How do I cancel the contract?

- You can cancel the insurance contract in full on the main due date. To do so, you must notify us in writing at least 3 months before the expiry date by registered letter, by bailiff's writ or by handing in the letter of cancellation against receipt.
- You can cancel the insurance contract if we make changes to the rates or amend the general terms and conditions. In this case, we will apply the statutory provisions and applicable notice periods.
- You can also cancel the insurance contract after a claim. You can terminate the contract no later than 1 month after payment or refusal to pay compensation. The insurance contract will terminate 3 months after notification. You must inform us by registered letter, by bailiff's writ or by handing in the letter of cancellation against receipt. If you choose to terminate the insurance contract, we will refund you part of the premium already paid in proportion to the unexpired term of the policy, provided no claim has been paid and no claims has been made which remains outstanding.
- You may cancel the insurance contract within 14 calendar days of receiving the policy, policy schedule and general terms and conditions without charge or penalty. Cancellation takes effect immediately after notification. If the insurance contract has already started, you will be required to pay the premium for the period started.
- If the insured bicycle has been stolen or destroyed without your fault. The insurance contract will be cancelled as soon as you notify us in writing that the bicycle has been irrevocably stolen or destroyed.
